

Civic Challenge

for grown-ups!

Being a civic leader is about all of the large and small actions we can take to be good neighbors and make our community a more positive place to live. How many of these civic actions can you complete?

Read over the civic actions on the back and see how many you can complete. Then, fill in the information below and mail your card back to:

CivicLex 141 E. Main St., Lexington, KY 40507

In return, we will mail you a certificate recognizing the important work you have done to make your community a better place! This strengthens relationships and trust between neighbors.

Name: _____

Your address for the certificate:

CivicLex

Adapted from The David Mathews
Center for Civic Life copyright 2020

Civic Scorecard

Donated to a non-profit

Worked with local youth

Discussed a current event with a friend or family member

Visited City Hall

Wrote an op-ed or letter to the editor

Joined the PTA

Encouraged someone else to get involved

Shared my perspective or ideas with a community leader

Took a first aid class

Visited a local or state park

Did a favor for one of my neighbors

Worked with others to solve a community problem

Researched a candidate running for office

Volunteered in my community

Read or watched local or national news

Met with my Council representative

Cleaned up my neighborhood or local park

Attended a community meeting

Visited a local library or museum

Registered to vote

Educated myself about an issue impacting my community

Wrote an elected official about an issue I care about

Donated blood

Attended a local arts or cultural event

